NASA's Langley Research Center

HONOR AWARDS

Tuesday, August 12, 2025

H. J. E. Reid Award

Recognizes an outstanding publication, refereed journal article, or other formal NASA archival media first authored by a NASA's Langley Research Center employee, an Army civilian, or an on/near site contractor or group of employees.

Accepted by Patrick Taylor and Emily Monroe

For an outstanding paper entitled, "Isolating the Surface Type Influence on Arctic Low-Clouds" published in the Journal of Geophysical Research – Atmospheres (Impact Factor = 3.8), authored by Patrick C. Taylor and Emily Monroe.

Technician of the Year Award

The Technician of the Year Award recognizes outstanding contributions performed within or related to fabrication, manufacturing or research testing and engineering development in support of NASA and Langley programs.

Presented to Antonio Daly

For exceptional achievement in manufacturing of the VSAT and RALB projects.

Administrative Professional of the Year Award

The Administrative Professional of the Year Award recognizes outstanding administrative contributions performed in support of the mission of the center.

Presented to Nicole Oman

For promoting collaboration, streamlining administrative operations, and innovative contributions that make a lasting impact at NASA's Langley Research Center.

Administrative Professional of the Year Award

The Administrative Professional of the Year Award recognizes outstanding administrative contributions performed in support of the mission of the center.

Presented to Molly Thomas

For outstanding administrative contributions and steadfast commitment to excellence in support of the Intelligent Flight Systems Division and Research Directorate Leadership.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration bestows its highest honor in recognition of achievements made by the following groups and individuals.

GROUP ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

This prestigious NASA certificate is awarded to any combination of government and/or non-government individuals for an outstanding group accomplishment that has contributed substantially to NASA's mission.

8-Foot-High Temperature Tunnel Mach 6 Nozzle Team

For exceptional teamwork and ground test enhancement in the upgrade of the 8-foot High Temperature Tunnel Nozzle.

ARCSTONE Payload Team

For outstanding achievement in the design, build, and test of ARCSTONE Payload, enabling the collection of high accuracy Moon spectral irradiance data.

Accepted by Constantine Lukashin

Marie Avery	Constantine Lukashin
Mark Banchy	Brian Magill
Michael Cooney	Luke Morrill
Maurice Cross	Thuan Nguyen
Gregory Crowther	Michael Ragin
Warren Davis	Carlos Roithmayr
Laura Dover	Noah Ryan
Sarah Foyer	Maria Salinas
Amy Glockner	Joseph Sparrow
Jeffrey Guilbert	D.L. Thomsen
Meredith Hartzheim	Ronald Topping
Trevor Jackson	Andrei Vakhnin
Wendy Johnson	Shane Wolf
Lindsey Leso	Cindy Young

ASDC Suborbital Support Team

Exceptional effort in ingesting and curating NASA suborbital field campaign data products and making the data more discoverable and accessible.

Accepted by Megan Buzanowicz

Megan Buzanowicz	Kasey Phillips
Nathan Jester	Abraham Porter
Sean Leavor	Morgan Silverman
Gabriel Mojica	David Westberg

Aviary Aircraft Design and Optimization Framework

For outstanding development and delivery of Aviary, NASA's open-source software tool for optimizing next generation aircraft designs.

Accepted by Benjamin Phillips

Eliot Aretskin-Hariton	Kenneth Lyons
Christopher Bennett	Benjamin Margolis
Darrell Caldwell	Kenneth Moore
Jeffryes Chapman	Erik Olson
Robert Falck	Dahlia Pham
Jennifer Gratz	Benjamin Phillips
John Jasa	Kaushik Ponnappalli
Xun Jiang	Carl Recine
Jason Kirk	Herbert Schilling

B777 Phase I Modification Team

For team's outstanding execution of the successful preparation, initial modifications, and timely delivery of the B777 aircraft to the contracted MRO facility for servicing.

Accepted by Matthew Elder

Gary Ash	Mitchell Glover	Joseph Riddick
Morris Banda	Kevin Hennessey	Mihailo Rutovic
Brian Baxley	Evan Horowitz	Shannon Ryan

Central Purchase (P-Card) Team

For delivering reliable and consistent purchasing support to the center.

Accepted by Tracy Boykin

Tracy Boykin
Karen Brown
Jessica Johnson

Maria Merryman
Delores Williams

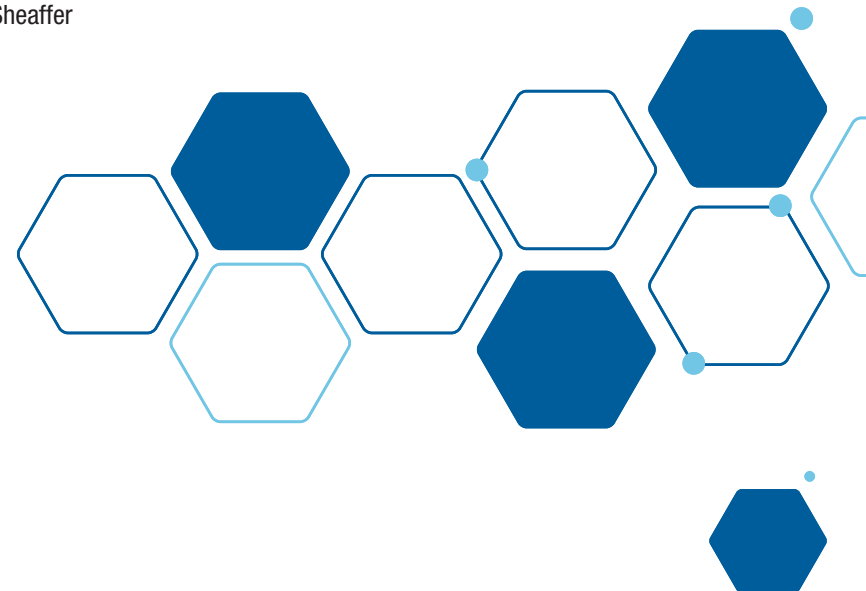

Data Analytics, Tool, and Automation (DATA) Team

For sustained outstanding leadership displaying technical expertise within OFCO to enable successful automation and analytical efficiencies within OCFO, center, and enterprise.

Accepted by Kristin Watkins

Jazmin Connor
Cody Flowers
Korab Limani
Damon Sheaffer

Nam Tran
Kristin Watkins
Devon Webb

FUN3D Exascale Development and Application Team

For exceptional leadership in GPU technology development for the agency and broader aerospace community, ultimately yielding an exascale-class simulation capability.

Accepted by Eric Nielsen

William Anderson
Ponnampalam Balakumar
Christoph Bauinger
Robert Biedron
Jan-Renee Carlson
Hayden Dean
Boris Diskin
Zachary Ernst
Dana Hammond
Alexandra Hickey

TDT Optical Test Methods Team

For outstanding perseverance and technical prowess in achieving the first demonstration in a heavy gas test medium of optical test methods at the Transonic Dynamics Tunnel.

Accepted by William Stevens

Scott Bartram
Kristen Carey
Michael Charnock
Jenna Eppink
Samantha Gildersleeve
Kyle Goodman
Luther Jenkins
Garrett Mchugh

Sarah Peak
Cody Pierce
Jennifer Pinkerton
Daniel Reese
Bret Stanford
William Stevens
Neal Watkins
Chung-Sheng Yao

TTT Raven Swift Team

For outstanding advancement of revolutionary subscale wind tunnel test methods and validating NASA tools for transformational aircraft design.

Accepted by Steven Geuther

Kasey Ackerman
Garrett Asper
Siena Bennett
Brayden Chamberlain
Ryan Chan
Neil Coffey
Steven Geuther

Matthew Gray
Gregory Howland
Justin Lisee
Jody Miller
David North
Benjamin Simmons
Jason Welstead

UAM Operational Fleet Noise Assessment

For exceptional effort in formulating and executing the RVLT Fleet Noise TC and developing first-of-a-kind capabilities for assessing and reducing UAM community noise impact.

Accepted by Stephen Rizzi

Aric Aumann
Durand Begault
Eric Boeker
Matthew Boucher
David Boyd
Rui Cheng
Andrew Christian
Nelson Guerreiro
Venkat Iyer
Wayne Johnson
Siddhartha Krishnamurthy

MEDAL RECIPIENTS

Distinguished Service Medal

This is NASA's highest form of recognition that is awarded to any government employee who, by distinguished service, ability, or vision has personally contributed to NASA's advancement of United States' interests.

Steven X. Bauer

For exceptional leadership, innovation, and technical excellence in aeronautics, significantly advancing NASA's mission and aerospace industry practices for four decades.

Glenn S. Diskin

For sustained technical excellence and exceptional contributions to suborbital in situ trace gas measurements of atmospheric chemistry and composition.

Distinguished Public Service Medal

This is NASA's highest form of recognition that is awarded to non-government individuals or to an individual who was not a government employee during the period in which the service was performed, whose distinguished service, ability, or vision has personally contributed to NASA's advancement of United State's interests.

David S. Dawicke

For distinguished technical leadership in structures and materials in the Space Shuttle, ISS, Orion, and Commercial Crew Programs.

Michael S. Golub

For exceptional sustained performance in continuously developing and modernizing NASA Geographic Information System (GIS) IT systems, databases, and applications.

Karl E. Wiedemann

For significant career contributions to advance NASA Aeronautics Research for the benefit of all.

Outstanding Leadership Medal

This prestigious NASA medal is awarded to any government employees for notable leadership accomplishments that have significantly influenced the NASA mission.

Kyle K. Ellis

For outstanding leadership in establishing the assurance of safety in the future of aviation.

Johnathan W. Hair

For outstanding leadership in the execution of the Aerosol Cloud meTeorology Interactions oVer the western ATlantic Experiment (ACTIVATE) Earth Venture Suborbital mission.

Glenn D. Hines

For sustained technical leadership to advance precision navigation descent and landing on celestial bodies.

Paul W. Stackhouse

For exceptional leadership in the development and advancement of reliable POWER data services that support clean energy, infrastructure, and agriculture decisions worldwide.

Exceptional Service Medal

This prestigious NASA medal is awarded to any government employee for sustained performance that embodies multiple contributions which contribute to NASA projects, programs, or initiatives.

Keith R. Boadway

For outstanding technical leadership of the Flight Software Systems Branch.

Sean M. Britton

For exceptional 40 years of service to NASA's Langley Research Center, NASA, and the nation in support of Flight and Structures and Materials Projects.

Eric R. Burke

For exceptional service in leading execution of the NASA Office of Safety and Mission Assurance Nondestructive Evaluation Development Program resulting in agency-wide impact.

Lauren M. Childs-Gleason

For exceptional service in support of the DEVELOP National Program.

Amanda Chou

For exceptional contributions to the research and advancement of methods and techniques for predicting high-speed boundary layer transition.

Juan R. Cruz

For outstanding contributions in parachute design on agency missions and for mentorship of a new generation of engineers.

Brian A. Davis

For over 10 years of outstanding contributions to the Commercial Crew Program to ensure flight safety and mission success.

Brian J. Getzewich

For extended exemplary service as the CALIPSO Data Manager and masterful stewardship of the data products, leading to their use in more than 4,500 peer-reviewed publications.

Bryan D. Haas

For outstanding and continuous efforts to advance institutional and programmatic infrastructure improvements at NASA's Langley Research Center and across the agency.

C. M. Holloway

For exceptional contributions to the advancement of Safety-Critical Assurance Technologies.

Dawn C. Jegley

For exceptional service leading the development of advanced composite technologies for aerospace applications.

Steve M. Lee

For exceptional 40 years of service to NASA's Langley Research Center, NASA, and the nation in support of Flight and Structures and Materials Projects.

Kaitlin A. Liles

For outstanding engineering excellence, creativity, and innovation supporting spaceflight development and in-space operations.

Exceptional Service Medal (continued)

Wade R. May

For exceptional service and sustained excellence to the STMD GCDPO as a Program Element Manager overseeing a large portfolio of Entry, Descent, and Landing Projects.

Anthony Notari

For outstanding service in support of NASA's Earth Science laser remote sensing projects.

Jennifer Perez

For exceptional leadership, innovative approaches, and strategic planning that played a critical role in enhancing NASA's operational capabilities and mission success.

Stephen E. Riddick

For exceptional performance as the FDRC Facility Manager in its final year of operation, and as Technical Lead for Flight Controls in Transformational Tools and Technologies.

Lindsay M. Rogers

For exceptional service and sustained excellence in ensuring first-class experiences for stakeholders and employees of NASA's Langley Research Center.

Kenton W. Ross

For exceptional and sustained service to the DEVELOP National Program.

Lori S. Rowland

For exceptional and impactful leadership and service as the Lead Resource Manager for Game Changing Development Program Office (GCDPO) in support of NASA's missions.

Kendall W. Sherman

For exceptional service as the Business Manager for the Space Technology and Exploration Directorate.

James Szykman

For exceptional leadership in stimulating and advancing NASA's mission through remote sensing and satellite observations.

Jerry E. Warren

For outstanding technical achievement on the Advanced Composite Solar Sail System Project and as a subject matter expert.

James E. Wells

For outstanding contributions in ensuring technical excellence across the Langley Engineering Directorate's project portfolio.

Christina F. Withrow

For outstanding individual contributions to NASA's missions and programs in the area of radiation safety.

Exceptional Public Service Medal

This prestigious NASA medal is awarded to any non-government individuals or to an individual who was not a government employee during the period in which the service was performed for sustained performance that embodies multiple contributions on NASA projects, programs, or initiatives.

James E. Collins

For sustained outstanding achievements in the integration, test, deployment, and analysis of airborne lidar systems for atmospheric profiling of key constituents.

Denise L. Cooper

For sustained and exceptional contributions in the development and evolution of the Clouds and Earth's Radiant Energy System (CERES) instruments data system and climate data record.

Janet L. Daniels

For exceptional public service and dedication to ensuring the operational continuity of the Clouds and Earth's Radiant Energy System (CERES) instruments.

James A. Hoffman

For contributions in the development of agency space systems software architectures and physical modeling.

Daniel L. Hoffpauir

For exceptional technical leadership in support to NASA, combining unique digital knowledge capture and engineering risk, enabling our most critical NASA missions.

Stanley E. Mason

For sustained Exceptional Public Service culminating as a multi-facility instrumentation and Controls Engineer providing outstanding support to enable NASA's mission.

Erin Moran

For exceptional and sustained service to NASA as lead technical editor for the NASA Engineering and Safety Center.

Gwendolyn H. Wheatle

For exceptional public service over an extraordinary 38-year career as a contractor at NASA's Langley Research Center, making significant contributions to NASA's initiatives.

Exceptional Engineering Achievement Medal

This prestigious NASA medal is awarded to both government and non-government individuals for exceptional engineering contributions toward achievement of the NASA mission. This award is given for individual efforts for applications of engineering principles or methods that have resulted in a contribution of fundamental importance in this field or have significantly enhanced understanding of this field or have significantly advanced the state of the practice as demonstrated by an application to aerospace systems.

Mitchell J. Davis

For distinguished contributions to the Navigation Doppler Lidar Project.

Aram Gragossian

For exceptional leadership and outstanding contributions to Navigation Doppler Lidar development and subsequent lunar demonstration mission.

Christopher O. Johnston

For exceptional engineering achievement of back shell radiative heating prediction for the Artemis I Crew Module and its impact on future crew and mission safety.

Peter A. Parker

For exceptional engineering achievement establishing the stress rupture reliability of composite overwrapped pressure vessels for NASA's crewed launch vehicles and spacecraft.

Exceptional Scientific Achievement Medal

This prestigious NASA medal is awarded to both government and non-government individuals for exceptional scientific contributions (specific, concrete scientific achievements) toward achievement of the NASA mission. The award is given for individual efforts that have resulted in a key scientific discovery or resulted in contribution(s) of fundamental importance in this field or significantly enhanced understanding of the field. Scientific contributions typically result from reasoned investigations or studies of phenomena using collected data and observations, current scientific theories and formulae, and the scientific method and/or formal techniques, to attain enduring principles.

Carlos G. Davila

For exceptional research developing progressive damage analysis methods for fiber-reinforced composite aerospace structures.

Richard A. Ferrare

For exceptional achievement in lidar retrievals of aerosols relevant to climate and human health.

Exceptional Technology Achievement Medal

This prestigious NASA medal is awarded to government or non-government individuals for exceptional technology contributions achieved in one or more of the following: (1) Technology development significantly contributing toward achievement of the NASA mission; (2) Development of a broadly applicable, disruptive technology for advancing future research capabilities or commercial applications; (3) Development of key conceptual or theoretical advances to technology that significantly accelerate the achievement of NASA's mission; (4) Exemplary collaborative effort in achieving significant technology transfer or technology infusion; and (5) Exceptional utilization of a NASA-developed technology resulting in a significant commercial application.

Jacob J. Follman

For sustained efforts in advancing the development of the Navigation Doppler Lidar, a sensor for safe and precise landings.

Thomas G. Ivanco

For exceptional development of a tuned damper technology that was subsequently patented and licensed for application to offshore wind turbines.

Fei Li

For outstanding pioneering research in boundary layer transition, significantly advancing NASA's LASTERAC software capabilities across diverse flight regimes.

John A. Smith

For exceptional achievements on the design and demonstration of the CALIGOLA Lidar Detector System.

Exceptional Administrative Achievement Medal

This prestigious NASA recognition is awarded to any civil service employee in the NASA classification 500 group or non-government equivalent for a significant, specific achievement or contribution that clearly demonstrates a substantial improvement in administrative support contributing to NASA's mission. The criteria should also include exceptional initiative in developing and implementing processes, methods, or operations that resulted in improvements to the office or program activities and/or operations.

Laura S. Bass

For outstanding service to optimize project coordination and contributing substantively to multiple teams supporting the ARMD mission to safely transform aviation.

Patricia R. Howard

For outstanding administrative support of the Flight Software Systems Branch.

Exceptional Achievement Medal

This prestigious NASA medal is awarded to any government employee for a significant specific achievement or substantial improvement in operations, efficiency, service, financial savings, science, or technology which contributes to the mission of NASA.

Brian T. Baxley

For exceptional achievement and impactful leadership in establishing and overseeing an innovative regional airworthiness review process.

Kevin Cunningham

For exceptional leadership of the Low Boom Demonstrator Flight Dynamics independent evaluation team in support of the X-59 Flight Readiness Review.

Jaime J. Day

For outstanding achievement ensuring efficient tracking of NASA resource expenditures.

John V. Foster

For exceptional meritorious service while leading the test team through the conduct of the X-66 test in the 12ft Low Speed Tunnel.

John M. Gardner

For outstanding contributions to the development of emerging aerospace composites.

Robert F. Hodson

For exceptional technical leadership advancing the avionics discipline to maintain the United States' leadership in space exploration.

Seiji Kato

For exceptional achievement in the development and validation of the Clouds and Earth's Radiant Energy System (CERES) Energy Balanced and Filled (EBAF) Surface Radiation Budget climate data record.

Siddhartha Krishnamurthy

For exceptional contributions to enhance test capabilities at NASA for evaluating human response to aircraft noise.

Sean A. Laughter

For technology development and operations on lunar lander subsystems and payloads that operated in space transit and on the lunar surface.

Timothy A. Lewis

For exceptional achievement in the development and cross-directorate approval of utilization objectives and strategic resource allocation agreements for Artemis III.

Raymond T. Lueg

For distinguished contributions in support of the Stereo Cameras for Lunar Plume Surface Studies (SCALPSS) Project.

Kevin J. McLain

For exceptional achievement in fabrication of deployable composite booms.

William H. Prosser

For outstanding service to NASA and the nation through technical leadership in the field of non-destructive evaluation.

Exceptional Achievement Medal (continued)

Vincent P. Schultz

For substantial improvement in NASA electric aircraft R&D dissemination and enhancing industry-FAA collaboration on electric aircraft standards development.

Loc D. Tran

For outstanding support of the Theia project to bring the National Transonic Facility (NTF) wind tunnel capabilities into the 21st century.

Shane B. Wolf

For outstanding individual contributions to NASA's missions and programs in the area of Mission Assurance.

Exceptional Public Achievement Medal

This prestigious NASA medal is awarded to non-government individuals or to any individual who was not a government employee during the period in which the achievement was accomplished. The award is for a significant specific achievement or substantial improvement in operations, efficiency, service, financial savings, science, or technology which contributes to the mission of NASA.

Steven Baughcum

For outstanding achievement in advancing the scientific understanding of aviation emissions and contrails through the Boeing ecoDemonstrator SAF Emissions Tests.

Marian B. Clayton

For outstanding development of advanced satellite lidar aerosol profiles and the careful and comprehensive assessments of these profiles using coincident airborne lidar data.

Diana R. Fitzgerald

For exceptional contributions to aeronautics communications and outreach.

William Griffin

For outstanding achievement in advancing the scientific understanding of aviation emissions and contrails through the Boeing ecoDemonstrator SAF Emissions Tests.

Morgan L. Silverman

For exceptional effort in leading the development of the Atmospheric Composition Variables Standing Name Convention and its implementation in NASA airborne field campaigns.

Elvin M. Thomas

For 31 years of excellent service as NASA's Langley Research Center Occupational Health Radiology Technician and Medical Practitioner within the Health Clinic.

Desiray H. Wilson

For outstanding public achievement advancing open science, innovation, and next generation engagement.

Early Career Achievement Medal

This prestigious NASA medal is awarded to any government and non-government employee for unusual and significant performance during the first ten years of an individual's career in support of the NASA mission.

Erin K. Anderson

For outstanding contributions advancing composite structures manufacturing technology for aerospace vehicles.

Rory A. Barton-Grimley

For exceptional achievement in development and application of lidar data and systems in support of NASA Airborne and Spaceborne Science Missions.

Alana M. Cardona

For outstanding contributions leading improvements in the development efforts of advanced composite structures for aerospace vehicles.

Jason M. Chenenko

For exceptional contributions toward transitioning high-temperature materials and structures for NASA and DOD reusable hypersonic vehicles.

Ian A. Clark

For exceptional research advancing noise source model development and aircraft system noise prediction, including the integration of acoustics within the Aviary toolset.

Nathan A. Dostart

For advancing lidar capabilities through the incorporation of Photonic Integrated Circuits.

Nelson G. Guecha-Ahumada

For exceptional contributions in Entry, Descent and Landing decelerator aerosciences.

Brett R. Hiller

For exceptional technical contributions in the aerodynamics field and the application of a knowledge-based design system for cruise slotted wing drag-saving benefits.

Elisa Leal Acevedo

For outstanding support on critical capabilities for Stratospheric Aerosol and Gas Experiment IV (SAGE IV), GPX2, Navigation Doppler Lidar (NDL), and Orion flight projects.

Lindsey Leso

For outstanding early career contributions to NASA's missions by providing exceptional procurement support to programs and projects.

Kimberly J. Martin

For outstanding engineering excellence, creativity, and innovation supporting several successful spaceflight projects.

Brodan M. Richter

For exceptional achievement in Additive Manufacturing Process Modeling.

Early Career Achievement Medal (continued)

Patrick R. Shea

For outstanding technical leadership and engineering excellence for the development and advancement of our next generation air and launch vehicles.

Joseph T. Slagel

For exceptional contributions in developing formal methods capabilities, and the application of these methods to the safety assurance of next generation airspace systems.

Steven M. Snyder

For outstanding management and exceptional research in the area of machine learning techniques to improve aerodynamic modeling.

Mary T. Stringer

For exceptional early career achievements and leadership in advancing solutions for emerging aviation markets: advanced air mobility and overland supersonics.

Katherine R. Travis

For exceptional research contributing to the understanding of atmospheric chemistry and air quality.

Silver Achievement Medal

This prestigious medal is awarded to any government or non-government employee for a stellar achievement that supports one or more of teamwork, excellence, safety, and integrity, when it is deemed to be extraordinarily important and appropriate to recognize such achievement in a timely and personalized manner.

Jennifer D. Adriany

For providing outstanding and sustained technical writing, strategic communications, and graphics support promoting NASA's Langley Research Center's mission with a focus on safety.

Lemuel D. Carpenter

For exceptional achievement in standing up the Extravehicular and Human Service Mobility Program (EHP) Integrated Performance and Systems Management Team.

Melanie Cummings-Grande

For teamwork and excellence in development of the Moon to Mars architecture decision package, pioneering processes for the agency's deep space exploration architecture.

Kevin E. Dee

For exceptional leadership in the planning and execution of NASA's 2024 Export Control Program Review.

Stacy R. Dees

For exceptional achievement in the development and execution of the NASA BIG Idea Challenges.

Joshua P. Digangi

For outstanding scientific support of the NASA Airborne Science ASIA-AQ campaign, the final mission of NASA's DC-8 flying laboratory.

Laura Eure

For exemplary leadership, exceptional teamwork, and flawless execution of NASA's Langley Research Center's Awards and Recognition Program.

Shelly M. Ferlemann

For enhancing efficiency, effectiveness, and impact of classified work and engagements at NASA's Langley Research Center.

Christie J. Funk

For exceptional dedication to the creation and success of NASA's Technology Transfer Expansion (T2X) program.

Lisa M. Harvey

For Exceptional Procurement Contributions that Ensured Continued Sustained Operations of Multiple Earth System Science Pathfinder Missions.

Nathan D. Keene

For exceptional support to operational and financial management of the Electronic Contract Management System (ECMS).

Dione N. Newman

For outstanding leadership and support in the planning and execution of NASA's 2024 Export Control Program Review.

Dennis R. Pryor

For outstanding leadership and dedicated support as the Director of the Resource Integration Office on the Center Management Operations and Engineering contract.

Silver Achievement Medal (continued)

Richard C. Rice

For outstanding management of the Electronic Contract Management System (ECMS) at NASA's Langley Research Center and continuous devotion to anyone needing IT support.

Laurie D. Roberts

For stellar service and achievements in support of projects for the Space Technology and Exploration Directorate.

Shannon C. Ryan

For exceptional achievement in supporting Research Services Directorate as a Resource Analyst during a period of transitional management while maintaining business operations.

Jeremy D. Shidner

For stellar achievement identifying options for return of the Boeing Starliner spacecraft from the ISS despite numerous propulsion system failures.

Gregory L. Slover

For exceptional service as the NASA's Langley Research Center Aviation Safety Officer ensuring compliance with governmental regulations and achieving 3,000 mishap-free flight hours.

Todd J. Spangler

For outstanding project management for several notable projects contributing to the revitalization of NASA's Langley Research Center.

Eric K. Svendsen

For exceptional engineering and management leadership of NASA's Langley Research Center's facility projects in support of the NASA mission.

Johnnie L. West

For exceptional and timely repair of GPX2 CubeSat to meet deployer dimensional requirements enabling successful launch.

Gary A. Wilson

For outstanding facility engineering and project management services to NASA's Langley Research Center.

Donald A. Wineman

For decades of exceptional support of the NASA's Langley Research Center Facility Configuration Management (FCM) Program and the 8' High Temperature Tunnel (8'HTT).

Donna D. Woodward

For excellence and significant impact in implementing organizational communication strategies in support of NASA's Langley Research Center's Systems Analysis and Concepts Directorate.

Jennifer M. Wrenn

For exceptional teamwork and excellence in schedule analysis to enable data-driven decisions for the Low Boom Flight Demonstrator project aircraft development.

Special Thanks to:

On behalf of the 2024-2025 Honor Awards committee, we would like to express our gratitude for all help received from the following departments to make this event possible:

- » Office of the Director
- » Langley Human Capital Office
- » Office of the Chief Information Officer | Media Solutions Branch –
Graphics, Video Production, Photographic Services, Printing and Duplicating
- » H.J.E. Reid Conference Center Staff
- » Office of Communications
- » Langley Air Force Base Honor Guard
